CINCINNATI. June 5 .- The Champions and the Reds have clear, hot weather for their final run in on the bifurcated grounds on York street to-day. They have two diamonds at the ball park the old skin affair now in use and the new grass diamond that will be dedicated about July 2. Nowadays the outfielders cavort around the new diamond and occasionally clamber over long drives. Dick Harley made a dismal failure as a mountain goat in his effort to get Kelley's double in yesterday's game, and said that he is glad to get away with his life every time a ball is hit down his way. Night work has begun on the new grand stand, because the carpenters knock off while a game is in progress and charge over to-day, so there is hardly any chance for another Anarchistic demonstration, unless Cunningham gets mixed up on his decisions. Manager Hanlon apologized this morning for the lefthelder's conduct and laced that player good and hard. The incident is now buried, unless Nick Young suspends Sheckard. The ketting, however, is 5 to 1 that Young Will pay no attention to Brush's request. The ancients of the Brooklyn outfit put in some more practice this morning, Kelley, Daly, McJames and a few others joining the Reds in an antellunch appetizer. Bid McPhee took as crack at second base, and made the youngsters stare at the way he handled, himself. If it comes to a pinch King Bid may don a uniform and help out. The champions moved up to tifth place yesterday and hope to hold it. The Reds are equally anxious to retain second position, so as to make the series with New York, beginning to-morrow, a fight for first place.

The Brooklyns will have a crack at "Little Amie" Rusie to-day for the lirst time in some years. "Bid" McPhee having decided to give the ex-Giant another chance.
